A word from the author

Every great adventure begins with a small idea.

My name is Fagner Bernardo. I am Brazilian, Catholic, and I live in the United States.

I deeply believe in the importance of family, good conduct, and the traditions and teachings of the Catholic faith in shaping a person's character and moral and ethical values. These principles are part of my life, and I want to share them with new generations.

Tito & Candi grew out of that wish: to create stories that not only entertain but also pass on important values in a light, natural, imaginative way, leaving something good in the hearts of those who read them.

Many of these adventures are inspired by experiences, memories, and small moments from my own life. Others simply come from the wish to imagine a world where friendship, kindness, respect, and family always have a special place.

That is how Vila dos Arcanjos came to be: a place where friendship, family, generosity, and even a child's small everyday discoveries can turn into great adventures.

My hope is that Tito, Candi, and their friends will bring many smiles and become part of many children's happy childhood memories. May their stories also be special moments shared as a family.

Welcome to Vila dos Arcanjos!

With love,

Fagner Bernardo
